

The Nonviolence Project Newsletter

What's New at the Nonviolence Project?

Welcome to the November issue of the Nonviolence Project Newsletter! As always, we have some great articles for you. Enjoy reading!

New Articles

People Power in the Philippines

By Nadya Hayasi

February 2022 marks the 36th anniversary of the Epifanio de los Santos Avenue (EDSA) People Power Revolution in the Philippines, when the population overthrew dictator and kleptocrat Ferdinand Marcos and abolished the martial law implemented during his rule. However, history is at risk of repeating itself as Marcos' son, Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr., won the presidential elections in May 2022, marking the Marcos family's return to Malacanang after 36 years.

Read this article

Hands Across the Baltics: The Story of the Baltic Way

By Gabe Sanders

In 1986, between 5 and 6.5 million Americans held hands for 15 minutes in an attempt to create a human chain across the United States. The event was known as "Hands Across America" and aimed to raise money for poverty and hunger. Three years later, two million Latvian, Estonian, and Lithuanian citizens joined hands, not to raise money, but to protest the illegal occupation of their countries by the Soviet Union.

Read this article

The Nonviolence Project would like to thank the UW History Department Board of Visitors for their continued support